

Session 3. Analysis of priority projects.

---

Identification of related competences and attitudes

Objectives of Session Three

---

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- translate the results of the Program Formulation priority project objectives into knowledge, attitudes and skills

Guidance to the Exercise 3

Modified Nominal Group Technique

---

Group work preparation. Elect a rapporteur

Guidance to the Exercise 3

Modified Nominal Group Technique (con'd)

---

Phase 1. Analyzing the priority project job requirements undertake the following. Use the handout to list the group results:

- identify managerial/leadership knowledge and technical knowledge
- identify attitudes related to the assessed managerial/leadership and technical knowledge

Guidance to the Exercise 3

Modified Nominal Group Technique (con'd)

---

Phase 2. The facilitator asks each group to cite inputs from their list, one by one, alternatively.

- If another group has the same knowledge/skills, they cross that one out.
- Facilitator records these inputs in the flipchart.

Phase 3. Facilitator improves the list in plenary if necessary

Next phase is undertaken in the session 4.

Hands on!
Thank you

---